Grand Rapids Public Library Furniture Industry Collection

October 2009 version

Abstract

The Grand Rapids Public Library Furniture Industry Collection is a devised collection that brings together miscellaneous small & unknown accessions related to the Grand Rapids furniture industry, in general and as related to specific companies. Included are furniture periodicals & other publications from the Grand Rapids furniture companies, or by others about and for the industry. Graphics including photos or original drawings, graphic clippings, and ephemera, as well as various other formats, may be found in this collection, but are not limited to this collection. There is a small section for non-Grand Rapids furniture references at the end of the collection, which is limited to information on or from other Michigan furniture companies not in the Grand Rapids area. This collection is not yet fully processed. While most of the materials included in the collection are issued from the industry, items are also added that research and document these historic companies. This is an open collection, to which new items are added as received or identified.

Related Collections

Some furniture periodicals are included in this collection, but others are shelved in the Local History Public Service area.

Coll. 232, Grand Rapids Public Library Trade Catalog Collection.

This collection includes publications from the furniture industries particularly related to their sales literature. Some of the items in Coll. 233 may also have been used indirectly with the sales programs, as promotions items for their furniture. But, generally, it is the literature in Coll. 232 which gives illustrations of stock available for sale, and price information, for a particular point in time. Unfortunately, that time is often unknown, due to lack of dating of the literature.

Coll. 084, Furniture Manufacturers Assoc., Grand Rapids Area. Records.

Ask staff for assistance in identifying other archival collections related to furniture design or designers, or a specific furniture company.

Oral History Collections.

See select oral histories of furniture manufacturers or designers in the various oral history collections of the GRPL Archives.

Coll. 164, the GRPL Oral History Collection, current has only a draft transcription for interview #110, Charles Sligh. See also the American Furniture Hall of Fame website for a Sligh oral history.

Scope and Content

This collection was created in Fall 1999 to house the fragments and small accessions within the Archives that related to the furniture industry in Grand Rapids identified during the “Move” cleanup. It should be noted that there are other collections related to the furniture industry, including, but not limited to:

- 84 Furniture Manufacturers Association Records
- 17 Widdicomb and John Widdicomb Companies. Records.
- 48 Robert W. Irwin Company. Records.
- 204 Grand Rapids Furniture Designers Association Records
- 232 GRPL Furniture Trade Catalogs.

Information on non-Grand Rapids furniture companies is not actively collected, though ephemeral holdings that do end up at GRPL from non-Michigan companies do find a home in the new Collection #335, Furniture Design Archival Collection, National Literature. The other complimentary collection with a national focus is the Furniture Design Book Collection, which is housed in its own room within the Grand Rapids History & Special Collections Center.

If holdings in this collection grow to a sufficient size for any one furniture company, a collection specific to that company may instead be warranted.

Series Descriptions

Series I. General History of the Furniture Industry in Grand Rapids.

Series II. Exhibit & Marketing Associations.

Subseries A. Furniture Manufacturers Association of Grand Rapids.

Subseries B. Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition

Subseries C. Grand Rapids Market Assoc. / Grand Rapids Furniture Market Assoc.

Subseries D. Executive Furniture Guild of America

This national organization, as stated in its 1952 Revised By-Laws, had as its purpose “to create the appreciation for and promote the acceptance of high grand office furniture among leading business and professional men ...

”At that time, the principal office was to located in the city where the Secretary resided, but an office in the Exhibitors Building in Grand Rapids, run by the “coordinator” was also maintained.

No information is currently available on how long the group lasted. A web page on the history of the Ohio Desk Company, states that Ohio Desk joined with Stow & Davis in 1947 “to form the Executive Furniture Guild, the first nationally organized effort to provide color coordinated interior elements and design to corporate clients.”

<http://www.ohiodesk.com/OD/Odhist.htm>

Subseries E. Grand Rapids Furniture Makers Guild

Subseries F. Grand Rapids Association of Furniture Exhibitors.

Subseries G. Associated Furniture Manufacturers of Grand Rapids.

This heading, used in a national publication, may be an incorrect use of the name of the Furniture Manufacturers Association of Grand Rapids, or a previously undocumented earlier name for that organization.

Series III. Publications (non-serial)

Series IV. Serials

Contains periodical titles or documentation on periodical titles related to the furniture industry.

For information on the local publishers of these periodicals see also Coll. 289, GRPL Publishers and Publishing Collection. For example, a 1916 letter to Dean Hicks Co. from Jerome Jerauld RE an article on Sgraffito Decoration for Furniture” is housed with other Dean Hicks materials in Coll. 289.

Series V. Images & graphics

Included here are graphic clippings, including advertising, original graphics, and photographs.

P2003.027d Binder, with mixed media.

Included in this series are the oversized Thorne illustrated room graphics, several of which have been used to illustrate periodical articles in locally publisher furniture magazines.

Also included in this series are library exhibit materials, which may contain images from several other archival collections, or may contain new images.

Series VI. Original Manuscript materials

Included here are small caches of original documents for Berkey & Gay, Gunn, Imperial & Luce.

Series VII. Scrapbooks related to the Furniture Industry.

See also Coll. 204, which contains scrapbooks prepared by the Grand Rapids Furniture Designers Association.

Scrapbooks may also be found in a separate designated section of this finding aid. For example, the 1911 Strike scrapbook is in the "Strike" section.

Series VIII. Non-Grand Rapids Furniture Reference Materials

Included here are items published about and by the furniture industry elsewhere in Michigan. For archival materials outside of Michigan, see Coll. 335.

American pattern : Grand Rapids, like many U.S. Towns, was built by eager young pioneers, the homesteaders whose sons today still carve our traditions.
A section called "Middle Western Houses of the 19th Century" includes sketches believed to be by Ernest Walker, of the following houses:
● Philips House, owned by Mr. & Mrs. L.O.
Duncan in 1943.
● Turner House doorway only.
● Robert W. Irwin House.
● Kirkpatrick House [stone Gothic]
● L.T. Wilmarth House
● Grand Rapids Art Gallery
● Hudson Valley style house.

Miscellaneous Ephemera

1 white 3-ringed binder filled with plastic sheet protector pages of visual information on mostly unidentified furniture, from unidentified sources.

The first section includes trade images (line drawings), with images of a corresponding actual items of furniture, for the Jacques Grange Collection, John Widdicomb Co.

The binder contains a lot of color photos, but there appear to be mostly copy work from a printed source, though a few show the item in a real time setting. A few 35 mm negative are also found in the notebook. Other material includes color laser copies, items cut from trade literature, other trade literature formats, adapted for the notebook.

The creator of the notebook is unknown, and only a few items include written descriptions or source clues.
