Grand Rapids Federation of Women's Clubs Records

Collection # 020

December 2007 version

Abstract

The Grand Rapids Federation of Women's Clubs Records collection includes papers of this umbrella organization for affiliated local women's clubs. Founded in 1896, the Federation seems to have died out near the end of the 1950's. The Federation was intended to concentrate the efforts of the various clubs on joint projects for social improvement. The collection also includes papers of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs (MSFWC) and the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC), with which the Grand Rapids Federation was affiliated. The bulk of the collection consists of correspondence, minutes of meetings, financial-related papers and yearbooks from the 1920's-1950's. The 1904-1905 yearbook lists the following clubs: Ladies' Literary Club, Alsbic, West Side Ladies' Literary Club, Grand Rapids Women's Club, Igdrasil Club, East Side Ladies' Literary Club, North End Women's Club, Equity Club, Eaglesfield Literary Club, Belding Women's club, Four-Time-Four Literary Club, Froebel Club, Mutual Improvement Club, Ladies Literary Society of Ada, Valley City Club, Wednesday Women's Club, Burton Heights Literary Club, Civic League. Additional women's clubs were also part of the Federation during different time periods, or existed outside of the Federation.

History

In 1896 a group of women led by Mrs. Loraine Pratt Immen conceived the idea for the Grand Rapids Federation of Women's Clubs (GRFWC), in order to conserve the energies of various existing clubs which had been expending aimless efforts for lack of concerted action. Mrs. Immen had visited the New York Federation of Women's Clubs and brought the concept back with her. On December 2, 1896, the first meeting was held at the home of Gertrude Newton, during which they developed the club objective to secure additional strength and united action when desired. Seven clubs were represented at that meeting: Alsbicc, Igdrasil, North End, Avon Shakespeare, Elocutionists, West Side Ladies Literary Club and East Side Ladies Literary Club. At the December 14th meeting five additional clubs were added which were Froebel, Equity, Ladies Literary, South End and Shakespeariana. Upon the GRFWC's fiftieth anniversary, ca. 1911, only the West Side Ladies Literary Club, the East Side Ladies Literary Club, and the North End Club of the original group still belonged to the Federation.

The GRFWC joined the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs in 1908 and the General Federation of Women's Clubs in 1914.

During their first fifty years, documented in the collection, the GRFWC undertook activities in four basic areas: children, civic, women and art. They were extremely active with Red Cross duties, especially during World War II. The Grand Rapids Arts Association had its inception in the GRFWC, and they were instrumental in the Museum Development project.
