History

The Grand Rapids Branch of the Needlework Guild of America was founded in 1921, as part of the national organization that had been formed in 1885. Throughout its 47 years of service to Grand Rapids and Kent County, the Guild distributed new clothing to needy persons through charitable agencies. These agencies included Mary Free Bed Guild, St. John's Children's Home, D.A. Blodgett Home for Children, the Butterworth Hospital Outpatient Clinic, Community Health Center, GR Association for the Blind, Villa Maria, and Christian Youth Home. At its peak, the Guild distributed 18,000 garments per year. Membership in the Needlework Guild was open to anyone who contributed two new articles of clothing. The Guild disbanded in 1968 when members found that the operation required more effort than they could give.

Scope and Content

The collection contains the following series: Minutes, Record Book, Correspondence, Scrapbook and Miscellaneous. The primary aspect of the material is the nearly complete run of the Guild's minutes during its existence. Other records include membership lists, financial reports and national reports. The collection also contains a scrapbook of newspaper clippings and correspondence.

The Correspondence Series (1940, 1960-1968, n.d.) contains primarily thank you letters from agencies and individuals that the Guild assisted. It also includes the letter from the national organization when the Grand Rapids branch disbanded. The scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings concerning the Guild's activities and yearly reports of numbers of people helped and the Guild's officers. The materials were once in scrapbook form. It also contains two photographs from 1960 that appear to be of Guild members.
