Summary Information

Repository	Grand Rapids Public Library, Grand Rapids History and Special Collections Department
Title	Amasa B. Watson Post #395 records
Date [inclusive]	1888-1936
Extent	0.67 Linear feet Two boxes
Language	English
Abstract	The Amasa B. Watson Post #395 records include minutes, membership documents and adjutant or quartermaster records. The Watson Post was one of five Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) posts in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Made up of Civil War veterans, the GAR was an advocacy group. It's records were created after the war and are not official government documents. The Michigan Watson post was chartered on November 15, 1888 with 27 members. The records in this collection detail the social aspects of the post along with memorial efforts on behalf of deceased veterans and include some biographical data on post members in the descriptive book. Also included are cemetery records compiled by Charles H. Fox. A few items from the ABW Woman's Relief Corp, no. 171 are also noted.

Historical/Scope and Contents

Included here are records of one of the five Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) posts in Grand Rapids. Chartered on 15 November 1888 with 27 members, the Watson post was the fourth post organized in Grand Rapids. The records detail the social aspects of the post, memorial effort in behalf of deceased veterans, as well as some biographical data on post members. Of note is the Descriptive Book which contains such biographical data on post members as: age, occupation, military service and in some cases death data and places of burial. The post seems to have disbanded in the late 1930s when the last of the members became too old to continue.
