Title:	Western Michigan Genealogical Society church records collection at the Grand Rapids Public Library
ID:	Collection 096
ID [Archivists Toolkit Database::RESOURCE]:	104
Date [inclusive]:	1837-1990
Physical Description:	5.9 Linear Feet 15 boxes
Language of the Material:	English .
Abstract:	The Western Michigan Genealogical Society church records collection is the result of a project conducted by the WMGS to borrow and microfilm historical files from churches throughout the Western Michigan community. The project was begun in 1974 and completed during the late 1980s. Some 243 church organizations eventually contributed to the project. Many of these, but not all, are represented here. The number of documents contributed varies from church to church, from one page to several volumes, or from 1 to as many as 88 microfiche per church, plus in some cases paper photocopies. The bulk of the documents date from 1837 to 1920, though for some churches materials are found as late as 1990. The primary types of data in the documents are records are births, deaths, marriages, baptisms, confirmations and memberships. Church histories, directories and lists of officers can also be found.

Biographical / Historical

The Western Michigan Genealogical Society, organized on 25 October 1954, is a volunteer organization devoted to furthering genealogical study. The group publishes Michigana and participates in a publications exchange program with other genealogical groups. In addition the society also actively collects or reproduces and indexes records that may be useful in research. The effort to microfilm church records is part of this latter mission. The filming stretched over four years, 1986-89, and includes over 180 churches in West Michigan.

For more information on the Western Michigan Genealogical Society see the wmgs.org website

Scope and Contents

---

The records, 1838-1990, vary greatly in scope, depending on the church. In some cases only a single page with minimal data is available for a church. In other cases extensive data is available on births, deaths, marriages, baptisms and confirmations. The records of several smaller churches were part of the records of other churches. These are noted throughout the finding aid.
