Grand Rapids Public Library
Furniture Trade Catalog Collection

New Version September 2009

Abstract

The Grand Rapids Public Library Furniture Trade Catalog Collection contains trade literature issued from both historic and still existing Greater Grand Rapids, Michigan area furniture companies. Some trade catalogs for other Michigan furniture manufacturers are also included in Series II of the Collection. The catalogs are primarily received as gifts, often from someone associated with the company, and usually some time after the catalog was actively use by the company. As such, the data represents the history of the company, but usually not the current product line. No comprehensive set of trade literature from any of the companies is currently available, but is desired.

Included are representative catalogs from the prominent American Seating, Baker, Berkey & Gay, Carl Forslund, Herman Miller, John Widdicomb, Nelson-Matter, Steelcase, Stickley Bros., and Stow & Davis companies, among numerous others. Catalogs from less well-known companies or those companies peripheral to the furniture industry, such as those manufacturing furniture hardware, or wooden objects, are also sometimes found in the collection. National & international companies directly affiliated with Michigan or Grand Rapids companies are included. However, trade catalogs for national or international furniture companies with no local affiliation, in as far as those are collected in the Grand Rapids History & Special Collections Center, are housed in Coll. 335, Furniture Design Archival Collection, National Literature. Also, items that are published as part of the national book literature will be found in the Furniture Design Book Collection, which is a separate special collection within the Department.

This collection lends itself to the study of the historic furniture companies of the “Furniture City” and Western Michigan in general, to the research of antique furniture, or to the development and changes in furniture designs, spanning as it does the period from 1866 on to the present. The collection is restricted to the literature documenting stock for sale, including pictorial catalogs with numbered furniture items, price lists, and sometimes correspondence associated with the sales literature. Trade flyers for furniture items also exist. Other literature created and published by the furniture manufacturers, but which does not directly relate to sales, may be found in the sister collections, the GRPL Furniture Industry Collection, #233 or the GR Furniture Manufacturers Assoc. Coll. #084, or Coll. #335, Furniture Design Archival Collection, or in the several other archival collections related to specific furniture companies or to design & designers.

The catalogs are arranged by date within the company entry, where the date is known. Furniture catalogs were often issued without a date on the catalog proper, often accompanied by a separate price list. Unfortunately, many of the price lists of have lost or separated from the catalog proper, which makes dating the time period of the furniture line difficult. Those companies for which more research has been done, and more catalogs are available, to provide transition information from one product line to another, will have more reliable date information.

This collection is often updated, and additional research and review continues to bring more accuracy to the information describing the catalogs.

Some historical information on the companies or the catalogs accompany individual entries, or can be found at the beginning of the section for a particular company.

A Brief History

The furniture industry in Grand Rapids was a mainstay of the local economy from the late nineteenth century to the middle of the twentieth century. Companies such as the John Widdicomb Co., the Baker Furniture Co., the American Seating Co., the Berkey & Gay Co., Carl Forslund Inc., the Nelson-Matter Co., Steelcase, Stickley Bros., and Stow & Davis produced much of the furniture in the Grand Rapids area factories, for sale across the country. These companies grew from small, family run shops to large-scale industries over the course of fifty years. During this industrialization, a lot of production became mechanized. But, still a portion of furniture, especially household furniture, remained handcrafted. Companies such as American Seating, Herman Miller, and Steelcase remain today as large-scale, often international, industries.

Information on the history of individual furniture company may be found included in some of the trade catalogs, or in other publications including in Coll. 233, the Grand Rapids Furniture Industry Collection, of Coll. 084, the Furniture Manufacturers Association Collection.

A basic reference tool for understanding the Western Michigan furniture companies is the publication Grand Rapids Furniture : the Story of American's Furniture City / by Christian G. Carron. Public Museum of Grand Rapids, 1998.

Naming Conventions Used in the Finding Aid

Generally, the corporate names used in this finding aid are the fuller forms of those names actually given on the items described. The forms of these names often provide evidence of the date of the catalog, and contribute to the overall history of the development of the company. Catalogs are listed under the names of the companies, listed alphabetically, in direct order, according to the official name form given in the publisher or imprint section of the item. However, cross-references are given under other forms of the name that may have been in the catalog in the title, for example, or on other literature of the company. Also, cross-references are given from shortened names commonly used for those companies.

For example:

“A. Steil Manufacturing Co.” is the name used in the title and in the imprint area of their catalog. The catalogs for that company will be found in the “A” section of this finding aid.

However, a cross reference is given under:

Steil Manufacturing Co.

This second form is that used in Carron’s “Grand Rapids Furniture” (1998). But, more importantly in this case, it is also an alternative form of name that was used in the Company’s own letterhead, accompanying the printed catalog which used the fuller form of name. So, the company officially used both forms of the name.

Carl Forslund, on the other hand, might use Forslund only in the title, but usually refers to its official names as the “Carl Forslund Company”. And, “John Widdicomb” is a distinctly different company than the Widdicomb Company, during certain periods of its corporate life.

Keyword searching under the important words in the company name are the best method for accessing all of the catalogs, wherever listed. Not all items from a particular company will be housed in the same containers, due to the physical size and condition of the items, as well as the name used on the item.

Master List of Furniture Company Names

Michigan Companies outside of the Greater Grand Rapids area are listed in a separate Series II. Non-Michigan Companies are held in Coll. 335

Processing notes

In preparation for the presentation of this collection on the GRPL GRHSC Website, the collection was inventoried, and is finding aid heavily edited & revised.

Furniture Company names are now presented at the head of all entries for that company. There are underlined, and in some future form of the finding aid, may provide a hot link to additional information about the company.

All items have been searched in FirstSearch "WorldCat", with the OCLC accession no. for the record or records found listed under the item.

All items have been searched in the book "Grand Rapids Furniture" / by Christian G. Carron. G.R. : Public Museum of Grand Rapids, 1998, which is the primary authoritative list of furniture companies currently available. The mark "GRF" is given if the company is found in this source. Cross reference notes from variant forms of the company name are given.

For the purpose of this collection, Furniture trade catalogs or literature is defined as a publication created for the purpose of communicating items for sale, listing the furniture stock and attributes for a company. Numerous other types of publications from a furniture company may exist, which talk about designs, or company history. These do not provide specific information such as item numbers and prices, and are not consider trade literature here. These items may be found in a number of other archival collections in the Grand Rapids History & Special Collections Center. One generic collection which now includes some of these items is Coll. 233, the GRPL

being boxes 8, 9, 12a & b, 24, 25, 26, 27, 44, 45, 46, 47, & 48.

Trade material, in formats that are better supported by a different size box, will also be found out of the basic housing sequence, but in order within its housing unit.

At the preference of the paging staff, companies with different names, but associated, may be filed together. In these cases, attempts have been made to place cross-references from the correct alphabetical location.

Series Descriptions

I. Greater Grand Rapids Area Furniture Trade Catalogs, 1866-

Arranged Alphabetically by the primary Grand Rapids furniture company name. This means that the actual corporate name given on the publication may not be the name under which the catalog is filed. For more specific access by corporate name, as the Local History Reference Staff to do a name search within the digital finding aid.

Where possible, an attempt has been made to arrange the catalogs chronologically within the company, in order to show style trends over time, and facility research. This is not always possible. So, if a chronological arrangement is not in use, alphabetical may be attempted.

The distinction of a company as a Grand Rapids associated company is liberal in this collection. So that the Acme Chair Co., of Reading Michigan is listed under Grand Rapids, as it was printed by the James Bayne Co. of Grand Rapids, with a cross reference from its Series II locale. When in doubt, check under both series

Forms of the furniture trade literature may vary, including catalogs with numbered illustrations, loose plates, order forms, brochures or flyers, computer diskettes, copies of Web pages, etc.

Oversized materials are arranged alphabetically in Oversized

II. Michigan, other than Grand Rapids, Furniture Trade Catalogs.

The Grand Rapids scope defined for Series I is fairly broad, generally in-compassing those locals within a 60 mile circle of the Grand Rapids area. Detroit is obviously outside of this scope, but some other portions of the State nearer to Grand Rapids might be in Series II, rather than Series I. When in doubt, the researcher will wish to review the holdings in both series.

III. National. Cross-References Only

Books about furniture in general, and about furniture companies in other states are held in the Furniture Design Book Collection. National furniture literature, include trade catalogs and other ephemeral literature, which are problematic to describe and house within the book collection due to their flimsy physical nature, are now housed in Coll. 335, Furniture Design Archival Collection, National Literature.

This means that for the trade catalogs of the Imperial Desk Company of Evansville, Indiana, the research should use the finding aid for Coll. 335, as that Imperial furniture company has nothing to do with the Grand Rapids Imperial Furniture Company.

There are a few unique cases where a Grand Rapids furniture company had a direct affiliate in another state. The Baker Company has xxx in New York, and Robert Irwin was affiliated with xxx in Boston, run by xxx Irwin. In those cases, where there was a direct corporate tie between these companies located in other states, the furniture catalog is retained in this collection. However, a cross reference for those companies will also be located in Coll. 335.

IV. International. Cross-References Only

Trade catalogs for furniture companies a corporate base and factories in states are primarily held in the Furniture Book Collection, if in bound book format, or may also be added to Coll. 335.

Milling Road Furniture, hand crafted by Grand Rapids Chair Company, Division of Baker Furniture, Inc.

Historical Note, based upon Carron, 1998, pg. 153:

The Grand Rapids Chair Co., was founded in 1872. From 1945-1957 it operated as a subsidiary of Sligh-Lowry, under it's own name.

The Grand Rapids Chair Company was purchased by Baker in 1957, but the furniture continued to be produced under the Grand Rapids Chair Company name. In 1973 the factory & assets were fully integrated into Baker, and the Grand Rapids Chair Co. name was discontinued.

Carl Forslund, Inc. 1934-

The catalogs of this family oriented furniture business often include images of family and staff, posed in group shots or in candid images.

Some of the photographers identified include Marius Rooks, and Earl Woods. See the separate Rooks Collection, No. 230, for possible negatives that may correspond with some of the images in these catalogs.

Many of the catalogs appear almost identical from year to year, but include some changes that make them unique, and usually have a different cover. The 1975 & 1976 catalogs are unique, with some changes in content, although the covers look the same. Most of the catalogs include a variety of decorative objects for sale, in addition to the furniture illustrated. Several had clippings removed from these before being given to the Library.

Catalog titles were taken from front covers. Various printers were used over the years, including R.R. Donnelley & Sons Co. of Chicago, as well as local firms.

Moved to 224: Back Roads of America by Robert Chappell from Carl Forslund. Grand Rapids, Mi. : Carl Forslund, Inc., 1974. [flyer]

NOTE: This flyer advertises a series of lithographs by Chappell, which was sold by Forslund. It has been moved to Coll. 224.
The lithographs were sold in a Cherry frame made by Carl Forsland, which is not well illustrated in this flyer.

Original descriptive information lost. Description based upon spine of library rebinding.

Note: items needs reformatting. Brittle pages are in distress due to the library binding. Items needs to be disbound, with plates protected and rehoused in folders for extra support, before boxing. Content has been lost due to trimming during the binding process. Pages pulling loose from the binding are becoming frayed and have been placed in folders.

Plate number inventory: Index/Plate 1 [torn loose and now foldered]. 1A, 2-4, 4A, 5-13, 13A, 14-21, 21A, 22-23, 23A, 24-28, 28A, 29-41, 41A, 46, 46A, 47-51, 51A, 52, 52A, 53-55, 55A, 55B, 56-72, 73A, 73, 73B, 74-81, 81A, 82-97, [Page 98 fragment; Chair in lower right appears to have been purposefully removed, perhaps before receipt], 99—102, 102A, 103, 103A, 104-111, 111A, [112 missing], 113-149.

Loose plates in folder: 150/151, [152 missing], 153/154, 155/156, 157?/158
Note, many numbers have been partially sliced off in rebinding, and additional content is being lost through the fraying of the loose sheets tearing from the binding.

Accompanying items found in back pocket removed to folder:

Per Carrol (1998) Foote-Reynolds Co. was in business from 1919 to 1926 when it was purchased by Kindel Furniture Co. However, evidence in an Autumn 1925 Kindel Foote-Reynolds Bed catalog indicates that Kindel had already taken over by 1925. See the Kindel section for these items.

The Furniture Shops, [n.d., ca. 1923-1925]
28 pp. : ill. ; 16 cm.
Date Note: Carron (1998) gives the date of the merger of Luce and the Furniture Shops as 1925. Since no mention of Luce is made on this item, it is believed to date in 1925 or before. Carron also gives the date of the Furniture Shops of Grand Rapids from 1923 to 1933. Thus, it is presumed that this item dates from 1923 to the 1925 merger. In 1933 Luce filed for bankruptcy, which may have resulted in the disappearance of the "Furniture Shop" name, after that date.

Carron (1998) gives the date of the merger of Luce and the Furniture Shops as

Grand Rapids School Furniture Co.

See also the Grand Rapids School Furniture Works following this section.

Founded in 1886, the Grand Rapids School Furniture Co., and known as the Grand Rapids School Furniture Works, the name was used until about 1899, when it merged with several other companies to form the American School Furniture Co. (N.Y.), in 1906. It first used the name American Seating Co., but the offices did not move back to Grand Rapids until 1931. (See Carron).

Thus, items below are believed to date between between 1886 and 1899.

P2009.014 Added 3/25/2009

Note: This company states that it is manufacturing the "Peeless Automate" Desk, and illustrations on pgs. 3-19 furniture which may or may not all be manufactured by this company. The rest of the catalog is devoted to other school equipment and supplies, manufactured by other firms throughout the country.

Carron (1998) list the Grand Rapids Furniture Co. for the years 1902 to 1957. He does not list the Grand Rapids Seating Company. However, ...

The Grand Rapids Furniture Co. is listed at 192 Butterworth in the 1894 Grand Rapids City Directory.

In the 1895 Grand Rapids City Directory, for the Grand Rapids Furniture Co., there is a cross reference to See the Grand Rapids Seating Company. The Grand Rapids Seating Co. entry lists the officers and location as given on the title page of the catalog now in this collection.

The 1896 Grand Rapids City Directory again lists the Grand Rapids Seating Company, this time with P. Frost Shepherd as President, W.J. Perkins as VP, C.B. Judd as VP, and S.W. Peregrine as Secretary/Treasurer, still at the same location. The Grand Rapids Furniture Co. is absent from the directory.

The 1897 GR City Directory once again lists the Grand Rapids Furniture Co., at the 192-212 Butterworth Ave. address. No officers are listed. The Grand Rapids Seating Co. is also listed at this address, with the same officers as for 1896.

In the 1898 Directory, the Grand Rapids Furniture Co. is listed with an address at Broadway between 9th and 10. The other Company's listing reads "Grand Rapids Seating Co. Peninsular Trust Co. Trustee."

In 1899, the Grand Rapids Seating Co. entry is gone, and members of the Perkins family, who have run the Grand Rapids School Furniture Co. during this time period, and at Broadway address, are now listed as officers for both the School Furniture Co. and the Grand Rapids Furniture Co.

A Portfolio of Upholstered Furniture [in part?] / Mueller Furniture Co.

Note: Fragments of Mueller trade literature received held within the portfolio cover of the title above. Currently there is no documentation available of the items actually published as part of the portfolio. The items current held here may or may not be part of the original publication. Some Plates are whole, while others are cut apart, and probably partially missing. Additionally, an unidentified newspaper clipping, and some original notes including dates, were received.

Also, 6 plates received with the bottom ¼ cut off. The cut portions appear to have been halved, and may have been used as scrap paper, since the integrity of the images has not been protected by the cutting.

1993.011. Removed from this location.

Evidence from these materials indicates that these items may have come from one source, Jack Buzzitta, and were perhaps his working files of trade literature, which came in with accession no.1993.011. Also contained with this material are some sketches & memos that have been completely removed from this collection and returned to unprocessed storage with the rest of the original accession.

The items retained in this collection are trade literature, left here for the present, but may be moved to a Buzzitta or Stow/Davis collection during future processing.

Most of the items are not from Grand Rapids Companies. Only 2 Grand Rapids furniture trade items were found in the 50 items inventoried from this folder.

Those two items have been placed in Box 16, alphabetically by company. Several other items are non-Michigan trade items, and listed in Series III of this finding aid, for the present.

Widdicomb Brothers and Richards / Widdicomb Furniture Company

Note: This is a different company than the John C. Widdicomb Company, which is listed in the "J"s alphabetically.

The Widdicomb Furniture Co. was the successor firm of Widdicomb Brothers & Richards, in 1873, remaining in operation until 1950, when it merger with Mueller Furniture Corp. to form the Widdicomb-Mueller Corp. See the separate trade catalogs associated with the Widdicomb-Mueller era. In 1960, this relationship was ended, returning with Widdicomb continuing on it's own into the 1960's.

In 1970, the name was purchase by the John Widdicomb Co.

The notable furniture design T.H. Robsjohn-Gibblings worked from the Widdicomb Company from 1943-1956. His name used or associated with a publication may help distinguish which of the Widdicomb Companies the items is issued from. In the 1960's Robsjohn-Gibblings worked for Baker, and some of this designs have made it into later publications from the John Widdicomb or associated organizations, in the 1980's and 1990's after the designers death.
