Repository:	Grand Rapids Public Library, Grand Rapids History and Special Collections Department
Title:	Michigan Lithographing collection
ID:	Collection 314
Date [inclusive]:	circa 1903-1976
Physical Description:	2.4 Linear Feet Three boxes
Language of the Material:	English
Abstract:	The Michigan Lithographing Company was a Grand Rapids, Michigan graphic and printing company. This collection contains materials recieved from an anonymous donor that document the business. Michigan Litho was established in 1901 and operated through the early 1990s, when the business was sold to another printing company. For most of its existence, Michigan Litho was located at the southwest corner of Fulton and Carlton. The building was destroyed by fire in 2002. This collection includes news clippings, business records, a company history, staff picnic programs and samples of work. Also included are a number of photographs, depicting the exterior and interior of the building, equipment that was used, products, product displays and employees.
