Abstract	This collection contains photographs used for the Grandville Star Newspaper from the mid-1960s to 1970. The photographs are predominantly identified, individual portrait-style images that range from local members of the community and store owners to local politicians and celebrities.

Biographical/Historical note

The photographs in this collection range from the mid-1960s to 1970 and were used in the weekly newspaper, The Grandville Star, located in Grandville, Michigan. The bulk of the collection consists of individual, identified portrait-style photographs of individuals from the Grandville and surrounding Grand Rapids area of Michigan. Also within the collection are negatives both containing identified and unidentified people. A smaller portion of the collection consists of identified individual and group photographs.

Scope and Contents note

The photographs in this collection are predominantly identified people from Grandville and Grand Rapids, Michigan. The photographs were used in the Grandville Star Newspaper from the mid-1960s to 1970. The images contain local store owners, people within the community, local politicians and some national celebrities. A smaller portion of the collection consists of negatives, identified group photos and unidentified photographs.
